Bosch on Ice is similar to Ice Hockey with a few exceptions.

- There are no goalies
- There are seven players per team on the ice at all times
- There are three Sepak Takraw balls instead of a puck
- Position players have different abilities. Teams may put in whatever combination of players they desire.

Players and abilities

POSITION	ABILITY
----------	---------

Human	Can use hockey stick. May not score with hands or feet
Animal/Monster	Does not have stick. Can score with hands or feet. Cannot move with ball
Bird	Does not have stick, can score with feet, not with hands. Can move with the ball for 5 seconds
Flying Fish	Does not have stick. On a scooter. Can score with hands or Feet
Knight	Has stick. Can score with hands or feet. Can only score when on top of a flying fish
Sledder	Does not have stick, can use hands or feet. On a sled. Must be pulled around. Score counts as two points
Ballmen	Work in teams of two. Do not have sticks. Can score with feet. Both players must be touching physioball with hands when attempting a shot. Players can throw physioball at other players for defensive strategy

Scoring

When a goal is scored the ball is returned to center ice and a face off is organized by the referee while play continues with the other two balls

Periods

As The Garden of Delights is a Triptych

Costume Guide

Human	Humans need to be wearing naked suits. This can be achieved by buying white t shirts and pants and dyeing them to whatever skin tone is desired. Or they can play naked.
Animal/Monster	There are many ways to make animals or monsters, they just need to be colorful and not human
Bird	Birds must have some sort of beak or proboscis
Flying Fish	Flying fish must have coattail fins
Knight	Knights must wear armor of some kind and have a helmet

Sledder	Must have a plastic sled
Ballmen	Usually wear naked suits as well, and hold a physioball
